

Wagner Greenhouses, Inc. a fifth generation family owned business since 1901, operates greenhouse growing facilities in Minneapolis and Hugo Minnesota. Wagner's reputation for producing quality plants, providing knowledgeable and dedicated customer service AND focusing on employee development makes Wagner's a superior workplace in the horticulture industry.

The Greenhouse Grower we seek will grow, care for and maintain the company's horticultural products, produced as young starter plants and finished container material. The ideal candidate will be able to utilize technical procedures to apply nutrients, fertilizers, plant growth regulators and pesticides, and to regulate environmental controls to adjust humidity, temperature, and light levels. Priority is to monitor crop development and maintain quality standards. Focus on details and priority development are necessary attributes.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities:

- Discusses plant growing activities with Head Grower that are consistent with planned production schedules
- Prepares space required for planned production
- Monitors growing conditions and discusses changes in humidity, moisture, temperature and other cultivation procedures with Head Grower to ensure conformance with quality control standards
- On a regular basis inspects crops' physical development and monitor pests or disease to maintain quality standards
- Assist in application of fertilizers, herbicides, and pesticides as directed
- Assist in the development of growing procedures for new species and new cultivation techniques for existing crops
- Maintain records of growing and production techniques for future review identifying trends and forecasting space allocation needs
- Assist in training new employees in growing techniques and activities
- Maintain a current knowledge of growing techniques and technologies
- Assists the Head Grower and performs other duties as assigned

Benefits:

- Competitive pay
- Excellent benefits package: medical, dental, vision, life insurance, and 401(k) with match
- Company paid Holiday's and PTO

Education and or Work Experience Requirements:

- 2-4 year degree in Horticulture or related field
- 3-5 years related work experience
- Physical aptitude and health necessary to perform manual labor tasks required for the position
- Flexibility in schedule (minimum of 40 hour work week), weekends, and overtime

Come grow with us! If you have the experience, passion, and knowledge we want to speak with you.